ACADEMY NOTES

Awake Ye Seniors! ! !
Hark Ye Seniors to the call of the Wild!
At 5.30 Friday, if the Weather be mild
The Hare Brained Juniors Race
Take up the trail and prove you're true
To the challenge of '22 ! !
The above verse was the challenge that the Juniors hurled at the Seniors Thursday morning.
Friday morning Alton Spencer, president of the senior class responded with the following:
The Reverend Class of '21,

Casting care to the winds is looking for fun,
Since it is Friday and the weather is mild
With joy they hear the call of the wild
Trust them! they'll prove they're true
To the challenge of hair-brained '22!

The fair held by Burke Mountain Grange in Algonquin hall, Sept. 25 was a great success with a large display of vegetables, fancy work, canned goods and similar products. West Burke Grange had a fine display in all lines of agriculture, adding a great deal to the success of the fair. The local grange served baked beans, brown bread, hash, rolls, pie, doughnuts, coffee and pickles. After dinner there was a parade of floats and cattle. W. F. and R. W. Burrington took first prize with a float trimmed with evergreen trees and containing a registered Ayrshire bull, Baron Derry Lad Mischief, 11 months old and a registered Ayrshire heifer, Lady Rosetta Wetherall, four months old, and three grade Ayrshire heifers, bearing the words "Ayrshires" from Vermont Hills and Breedy Hill Farm.

Roofing Tips

They tell us that slate costs $20.00 per square laid, and first grade shingles $10.00 or $10.50 plus $2.50 for the laying. Steel, when it's to be had, is selling around $12.00 or $13.00, so we're told.

Is it, then, any wonder that

sells and keeps selling—when the heavy may be had at $5.00 the square and the regular at $4.25.

Here's the Manuel barn on North avenue, Burlington, upon which Paroid was laid 19 years ago. A few weeks ago it was covered again—with Paroid, of course—not that the roofing was gone but the owner was replacing old shingles on the other barns and wished to make a clean sweep and have all new. Had the Paroid been painted occasionally it would have been good yet.

Along with Paroid goes American Smooth and Slate Surface, Granitized and Universal—all made by Bird & Son, whom we have represented for nearly 20 years. These Roofings are sold in Vermont by:
